The Daily Gazetteer.

NUMB. 3186

FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1744.

Toulon, May 8.

THE Infant Don Philip ſends Courier after Courier to Madrid, in order to procure Succours; the laſt Action having convinced him, that with the Army he now commands, it will be impoſſible to penetrate into Italy. He demands from his Father 10,000 freſh Troops immediately, and 10,000 more before the End of the Campaign. The Engliſh Fleet keeps us in continual hot Water; and but three Days ago a rich Merchant Ship was taken by an Engliſh Man of War in Sight of our Forts, which could do nothing to ſave her, becauſe the Wind dropt before ſhe could get under their Cannon. Our Fleet is taking in freſh Naval Stores, and will be very ſoon in a Condition to look the Enemy in the Face. It actually conſiſts of 22 Men of War, excluſive of four Spaniſh Frigates; and it is certain, that M. de Maurepas is coming hither, in order to diſpoſe every Thing for its putting to Sea without Delay, that they may attempt to drive the Engliſh from our Coaſt. The Regiment of Languedoc is coming hither to recruit, having ſcarce 150 Men left.

Paris, May 15. It is very certain, that Cardinal Tencin is at the Head of our Miniſtry; tho', as yet, he has not all the Enſigns of that ſupreme Dignity; which, very poſſibly, he does not affect; knowing well, that there is a great Difference between Power and Shew. For this Reaſon, he very wiſely fixed the Council of the Regency at the Chancellor's, in which that Magiſtrate conſtantly preſided, but they are the Cardinal's Meaſures that are purſued. A private Agent of his was lately at Turin, and is now here; and on his Report, the Journey of the Archbiſhop of Bourges is laid aſide; his Sardinian Majeſty being abſolutely reſolved to adhere to the Allies at all Events, notwithſtanding the mighty Offers made him on the Part of the two Crowns. It is ſaid, that the Piedmonteſe Troops would not have defended their Retrenchments, if it had not been to oblige Admiral Matthews; neither was it thought fit to withdraw thoſe Troops till the Admiral conſented. The Rumour that prevailed here, that we ſhould ſoon have a Peace, is quite blown over; and another Report prevails in its Stead, which is, that a Treaty of great Importance was lately ſigned at Franckfort; in Conſequence of which, Count Dohna, the Pruſſian Miniſter at the Court of Vienna, had delivered a Memorial of a very extraordinary Nature, a Copy of which is impatiently expected. M. Amelot, ſince his Diſgrace, has no Company; and is ſaid to take the Thing exceſſively to Heart. Publick Prayers are made here for the Succeſs of the Campaign, at which the Queen regularly aſſiſts.

Bruſſels, May 21. The Army of the Allies took the Field on the 14th. The Engliſh are 22,000 ſtrong; the Hanoverians 16,000; the Auſtrians 18,000; the Dutch 30,000; and are ſo poſted, as that the whole Army, conſiſting of 76,000 Men, may be drawn together in 6 Hours. We had, this Morning, Intelligence, that the French have actually inveſted Menin, and were advancing towards Ghent. The Reports that have been ſpread, as to the Differences ariſen among the Generals of the Allies, are altogether void of Foundation, ſince all Parties have agreed to leave thoſe Differences to the Deciſion of the Courts of London and Vienna; and the Courier is daily expected here, with their final Orders. We likewiſe expect the Return of the Dutch Miniſter from the French Camp, where he has met with a Reception very different from what was expected; ſo that there is no Doubt made here, that the War will become general. A Courier arrived this Day at Noon from Vienna, with the agreeable News, that our Forces were actually entred the Kingdom of Naples; and that, in all probability, the entire Conqueſt of that Country will be made before the Cloſe of the Campaign. The Accounts we had here, of the Emperor giving up Philipſburgh to the French, proves falſe; and Marſhal Count Seckendorff has publiſhed a long Letter on the Subject, in which he treats this Report as a moſt injurious Calumny, calculated to eſtrange the Hearts of all true Germans from the Loyalty they owe to the Chief and Head of the Empire.

HOME PORTS.

Dover, May 16. Wind N. N. W. Arriv'd the Catherine, Perry, from Lisbon; who, off the Land's End, was attacked by a French Privateer; but after exchanging ſome Shot, the Privateer made off. Remains in the Lower Road the four Men of War as per laſt.

Deal, May 16. Wind N. W. by N. Came down and ſailed the Argyle, Clark, for Cork and Gibraltar. Came down the Boulter, Weales, for Lisbon; and remains with the Benjamin, Way, for East India; the Creighton, Lloyd, for Gibraltar; and the Mary, Watſon, for Maryland.

Graveſend, May 16. Paſs'd by the Arundale, Chriſtianſon, from Norway; and the Chriſtian, Reaſon, from Bremen.

LONDON.

The Infant Don Philip has fix'd his Head Quarters at Nice. The Prince of Conti is gone to make a Tour to Monaco; but the combined Army will not undertake any Thing of Conſequence, till joined by their expected Reinforcements.

Admiral Matthews remains, with his Fleet, in the Road of Vado, within two Leagues of Savona; and ſends his Prizes into Genoa and Legborn; at which laſt Port, there are already 19.

The celebrated Mademoiſelle Barberina makes a more ſhining Figure at Berlin, than ſhe ever did at Paris, London, or Venice; and they talk of ſhortly printing her Memoirs, which would prove very entertaining.

The French are actually aſſembling a great Army at Spire, in order to diſpute the Paſſage of the Rhine with the Auſtrians.

Private Letters from the Confederate Army ſay, that they are in full March for Ghent, as well as the French; ſo that, it is thought, a deciſive Action in Flanders will quickly happen.

The Solomon, Capt. Lepepin, from Buenos Ayres, before ſhe put into Lisbon, fell in with a French Homeward-bound Eaſt India Ship; and being very leaky, ſhe put on board the East India Ship 600,000 Pieces of Eight, and the reſt of her valuable Effects. And as we have not yet any Account of the ſaid India Ship's being arriv'd, 'tis to be hop'd ſhe has been met with by ſome of Sir Charles Hardy's Squadron.

Laſt Sunday died, in advanced Years, at her Houſe in Kenſington Square, Mrs. Birch, Relect of Mr. Serjeant Birch, late Curſitor Baron of his Majeſty's Exchequer.

On Monday laſt Sir Willoughby Aſton, Bart. was married to Miſs Betty Pye, fourth Daughter of Henry Pye, of Red Lion Square, Eſq; after which they ſet out for his Seat at Wadley, near Farringron in Berks.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Berkely, with his new-married Lady, waited on his Majeſty at Kenſington, and were moſt graciouſly received.

'Tis ſaid his Majeſty has entirely laid aſide his Intention of going to viſit his German Dominions this Seaſon.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Lord Edgcumbe, Sir John St. Aubin, and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, waited on the Lords of the Admiralty, to get a Convoy for the Tin Ships out of the County of Cornwall, during the War.

The Princeſs Auguſta Yacht, modell'd and built by Lord Baltimore, for his own Uſe, and proved to be one of the beſt Sailors in the River, is purchaſed by ſome Gentlemen, in order to be fitted for a Privateer; ſhe is to carry 14 Carriage, and 14 Swivel Guns, and is to be commanded by Captain Legroſe; whoſe Conduct and Courage was ſufficiently known in the laſt French War.

Miſs Molly Turner (who ſung at Ruckholt Houſe on Monday laſt, before divers of the Nobility, and a very great Aſſembly, with general Applauſe) will ſing ſeveral Songs on Monday next, as ſoon as the Serenata is over.

SITTINGS appointed in London and Middleſex before the Right Honourable Sir John Willes, Knight, Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter, in and after Trinity-Term, 1744.

BALSAMICK STYPTICK,
Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mrs. DUTTON's, in Salisbury-Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains, in a most surprizing Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoidal Vessels; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, in all Climates, therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtaining his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine, but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting the Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. The late Learned Dr. CHEYNE, in his Treatise, entitled The Natural Method of curing the Diseases of the Body, &c. prefers Eaton's Styptick to Helvetius's and all other Stypticks; and speaks of it as follows: '——Every one 'knows the agglutinating Quality of sweet Gums, and 'prehend it is to this, that Eaton's Styptick owes its 'mild, soldering Efficacy.—It is more mild, balsamick 'and soft, than the mildest Steel Preparations, and more 'to patch a Hole, or glew up a Rupture, or to give a Solder 'to the acrid and inflam'd flowing Blood of the Patient. It 'says, he is confirmed in this by a Physician of great Worth 'and Candor, who has great Opportunities of observing the 'Cases, by his Practice in Midwifery, &c. p. 182.
